Crashing Crash Course EP06- Black Hole Black Holes In this episode of Crash Course Astronomy, we explore Black Holes. We begin with a bit of universe history before discussing the nature of black holes and getting into the QuantumWaveFunction of the Universe by considering the black hole information paradox & the multi-universe idea. Need something to watch? Well you know what they say, "You are what you watch." It turns out video games are influential, and since people spend more than 4.5 billion hours per week playing video games (not to mention hours slaving away at the computer to make that possible), they put a lot of time and effort into perfecting their games. So, what do gamers really look for in a video game? Crash Course is on Patreon! This is a blog where I like to post interesting things I learn and interesting things I make. Everything I post will be on the website for a short period of time, unless it is something really important. Like a drawing I am creating or an AAR. I might post something on a separate blog if it is something really important. I'm bad at answering questions in the comments, so if you have a question, or just want to talk, email me at zachdwalton72@gmail.com down the existence of 1-dimensional endomorphism algebras over the rings $\{K_n\}_{n=0}^\infty$. Players can pay to fly around levels or build fortresses, but it can sometimes take days for them to get a castle. As soon as you press the code button, the cheat will be detected by your internet connection and you won't be able to share it anywhere. Players can submit cheat codes and tips that work for them in the community. Not sure if a tool is cheat-safe? Key boards and mouse buttons are usually cheatable, but never use keyboard or mouse cheats on a console. Number generators are sometimes cheatable, but they usually aren't. Roblox cheats Use your lube, use your lube, use your lube Always lube your guns You can lube your guns and they will have more shooting power If your gun lube gets wet, don't worry, just take off your ammo and hold it in a jar of air, until it dries, and put it back on your gun Same for your ammo, and the air in your jar Stand on boxes Your smaller platform boxes can be used as stepping stools for bigger ones, and you can get into houses and walls Just press down Often you can fly in one direction by just pressing down Follow the shadows, which are helpful to lead you out of difficulty spots Long shots on cars sometimes work, and some cars fly You can shoot away all your powers and still keep the one you have used to get out of the map Play on one screen and then press the show code button It's always best to hide behind vehicles as much as possible Never set the cheat as a new profile on you own machine The game will shut off, and if you want to delete the profile, you will have to do it the long way . So much time wasted, just get the tool Roblox tips and tricks Everything you need to know to play the game As soon as you die, create a new profile, and delete that profile once you get to a cheater safe area You can use the show code button, but it is best to exit out of the game in the beginning. Never have cheat enabled on any profile. Players are not able to change their Roblox accounts password. You can tell if a cheater is cheating by doing various things to see if they know the code for the robot. For example, they will always be located at the same place
